

CALLING ALL SURF ARTISTS, PHOTOGRAPHERS AND VIDEOGRAPHERS!!!!

Show your work at an art benefit for Surfrider Santa Cruz and Santa Cruz Surf Museum

Are you an aspiring or established surf artist, photographer, or filmmaker who would like to share your work locally with an audience of enthusiastic coastal environment activists who have a strong appreciation for the aesthetics of waves and surfing?

If so, submit your work to the Surfrider Foundation Santa Cruz Chapter for exhibition at our, “Surf Art, Photography & Film Fest,” taking place at the Cosmo Factory downtown from 7-10 pm on June 20, 2009. Come celebrate International Surfing Day (ISD), Santa Cruz style! Your work will not only be in the good company of emerging and distinguished local artists, but you will also play an important part in helping raise awareness about the need to protect our oceans, waves and beaches.

Submission Guidelines – Deadline June 13, 2009

To enter, email a one-paragraph bio plus contact info to surfridersantacruz_isd2009@hotmail.com. If possible, bring a photo or portfolio of artwork/photography you would like to exhibit or a DVD copy of your film (preferably shorter than 30 minutes) to our next general meeting at 7 pm on June 9 at Simpkins Swim Center off 17th Ave in Live Oak (see www.surfridersantacruz.org for details). If unable to make the meeting, email art/photography submissions to surfridersantacruz_isd2009@hotmail.com or arrange for alternate film DVD drop-off.

About International Surfing Day

Founded five years ago by the Surfrider Foundation and Surfing Magazine, International Surfing Day unites surfers from around the world in celebration of the sport of surfing. As is tradition with the annual holiday, surfers will do their part to give back to our oceans, waves and beaches through various activities and events courtesy of the Surfrider Foundation and beach lovers around the globe.
